

BUONGIORNO TUSCANY
Villa Buonvisi

LUCCA 2020

La Vita é Bella

Skills, passion, and a never-ending strive to improve will take you far. But to involve, you need inspiration - and that's why we this season went to Villa Buonvisi, just outside Lucca.

Few places inspire us more than this part of Italy. Tuscany is a place, which is built around passion and genuine craftsmanship. Based in tradition, yet often also with a modern twist to fit in the 21th century - and always with extraordinary attention to details.

Of course, we get a lot of our inspiration from other artisans, and Tuscany is full of craftsmen doing everything from ceramics and glass blowing to leather production and lace embroidery. But, for us, it's equally inspiring to hear the Italian wine producers talk about their passion for Sangiovese grapes or to see an aged chef handle a Bistecca Fiorentina with absolute love and respect.

After all, we're all doing the same thing. We're using our genuine passion in our skills in craftsmanship to show the Gentle Man that life is full of wonderful things - and most of them are still to be found.

RECYCLED CRAFTSMANSHIP

Berkeley Frescobol Beach Bats

Frescobol first began in Brazil, on the beaches of Copacabana just after the Second World War. It is a game that truly captures the values of the Gentle Man. The bats are handcrafted by local artisans, known as Marceneiros, from recycled bass wood and black walnut. The unique Berkeley Frescobol Beach Bats are developed together with Brazilian Frescobol Carioca.
